

 Week by Week Week 11: Final Exam (November 21st) Review Test Submission: Final Exam (Due November 21st)

Review Test Submission: Final Exam (Due November 21st)

User	Krupesh Chetanbhai Shah
Course	DS-650-HYB-22FATR: Data Law, Ethics & Bus Intel
Test	Final Exam (Due November 21st)
Started	11/21/22 10:06 PM
Submitted	11/21/22 11:19 PM
Due Date	11/21/22 11:59 PM
Status	Completed
Attempt Score	490 out of 500 points
Time Elapsed	1 hour, 12 minutes out of 1 hour and 15 minutes

Question 1

10 out of 10 points

GDPR is a:

Question 2

10 out of 10 points

Using a process known as extract, transform, and load (ETL), warehouses standardize data across systems, which allows it to be queried

Question 3

10 out of 10 points

Unstructured data (such as notes, or author information) is tagged with a metadata to make it easier to find is known as:

Question 4

10 out of 10 points

Big Data is the new age technology that has made ground-breaking insights available in real-time.

Question 5

10 out of 10 points

In data protection laws, U.S federal statutes are more focused on specific sectors.

Question 6

10 out of 10 points

The term business intelligence came into use around the 1950s, and it grew out of technology called decision support systems.

Question 7

10 out of 10 points

Data is transformed into data warehouse or data mart is known as:

Question 8

10 out of 10 points

An act that restricts use of information bearing on an individual's credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics or mode of living to determine eligibility for credit, employment or insurance.

Question 9

10 out of 10 points

Children's information is protected at the federal level under the Children's Online Privacy Protection (COPPA)

Question 10	10 out of 10 points
Trade Secrets are only state trade secret laws that protect sensitive business information
Question 11	10 out of 10 points
Data marts limit the complexity of databases but are more expensive to implement than full warehouses
Question 12	10 out of 10 points
Semistructured data are information that can't be easily read by computers (Including text documents, videos, or any information that isn't clearly sorted or can't be organized into databases)
Question 13	10 out of 10 points
In the U.S., laws protecting data and consumer privacy are based on the principle that an individual has an expectation of privacy
Question 14	10 out of 10 points
Unstructured Data is data that resides in a fixed form, such as name collection forms on Websites
Question 15	10 out of 10 points
Company data isn't always in one location
Question 16	0 out of 10 points
In order to properly analyze the data, it must be in the same format, this is know as:
Question 17	10 out of 10 points
The FTC, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, and the Department of Health and Human Services is responsible for data collection on the federal level
Question 18	10 out of 10 points
The method of standardizing and centralizing data is known as:
Question 19	10 out of 10 points
In data protection laws, U.S. State statutes primarily aimed at specific sectors.
Question 20	10 out of 10 points
1 TB (Terabyte) is equivalent to 1,024 KB
Question 21	10 out of 10 points
GDPR stands for:
Question 22	10 out of 10 points
Artificial intelligence (AI): The branch of computer science that explores techniques for incorporating aspects of intelligence into computer systems.

Question 23	10 out of 10 points
Data warehouses are used to store data in multiple locations
Question 24	10 out of 10 points
An act that governs the protection of personal information in the hands of banks, insurance companies and other companies in the financial service industry.
Question 25	10 out of 10 points
A patchwork of state laws known as the ----- protects the image and name of a person. These laws protect against the unauthorized use of a person's name or image for commercial purposes—for example, the use of your picture on a box of cereal.
Question 26	10 out of 10 points
In the United States, the copyright protection extends to all "original works of authorship" to take into account new kinds of media.
Question 27	10 out of 10 points
It's difficult to organize structure data in traditional databases, because it can't be stored in rows and columns
Question 28	10 out of 10 points
There is a single principal data protection legislation in the U.S.
Question 29	10 out of 10 points
GDPR replaced which law
Question 30	10 out of 10 points
An act that governs the privacy and disclosure of personal information gathered by state Departments of Motor Vehicles
Question 31	10 out of 10 points
Unsolicited commercial emails are regulated under the CAN-SPAM Act (15 U.S. Code 7704).
Question 32	10 out of 10 points
The mechanisms (laws) for assessing responsibility for decisions made and actions taken:
Question 33	10 out of 10 points
The Copyright Act of 1976 forms the basis of copyright law in the United States today.
Question 34	10 out of 10 points
Ethical issues with information technology include the following EXCEPT:

Question 35	10 out of 10 points
Big Data are data sets that are collected from social media sites only?
Question 36	10 out of 10 points
Data comes in three main forms: - Structured - Semistructured - Unstructured
Question 37	10 out of 10 points
IP is defined as an intangible property that is the result of creativity
Question 38	10 out of 10 points
An act that protects information held by a covered entity that concerns health status, provision of health care or payment for health care that can be linked to an individual
Question 39	10 out of 10 points
The discovery, interpretation, and communication of meaningful patterns in data is known as:
Question 40	10 out of 10 points
It's easy for computers to read and query structured data, because the data is already standardized
Question 41	10 out of 10 points
The Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) and associated regulations regulate all calls and text messages to mobile phones and regulate calls to residential phones that are made for marketing purposes
Question 42	10 out of 10 points
Applications that transforms data into meaningful information which helps businesses make better decisions
Question 43	10 out of 10 points
A Petabyte is larger than an Exabyte
Question 44	10 out of 10 points
Most of the big data collected is analyzed
Question 45	10 out of 10 points
Are rules or regulation made by the government that require or prohibit behavior in society
Question 46	10 out of 10 points
European Union data protection law protects individuals, which refers to as

Question 47 One of the inherent risks of big data analytics is Data misinterpretation:	10 out of 10 points
Question 48 An act that was enacted to protect wrongful disclosure of video-tape rental or sale records or similar audio-visual materials, online streaming	10 out of 10 points
Question 49 Data backup is not needed if the data is stored on the cloud	10 out of 10 points
Question 50 An act that is empowered to bring enforcement actions to protect consumers against unfair or deceptive practices and to enforce federal privacy and data protection regulations Monday, November 21, 2022 11:19:15 PM EST	10 out of 10 points

← OK